

2015 Global Mobility, Immigration and Logistics Award Winners Announced

United Kingdom, 18 June 2015 – The winners for Acquisition International’s 2015 Global Mobility, Immigration and Logistics Awards have just been announced.

Acquisition International’s 2015 Global Mobility, Immigration and Logistics programme is focused on the industry professionals who have performed at a consistently high level and delivered, on a regular basis, exceptional results over the past 12 months.

Speaking about their award, Awards Coordinator Peter Rujgev commented: “As businesses become more and more diverse, and expand beyond traditional boundaries, we are delighted to honour the key players in this exciting industry. With such a terrific response for the awards, the winners can take great pride in their achievement and we wish them continued success in the second half of 2015 and beyond.”

To learn more about our award winners and to gain insight into the working practices of the “best of the best”, please visit the Acquisition International website (www.acquisition-intl.com) where you can access the winners supplement.
