

July 2015

ITG Worldwide is delighted to have been shortlisted for an Americas Expatriate Management Mobility Award (EMMA), for the fifth year in a row. ITG is proud to be among the companies shortlisted as nominees for this prestigious award, which it won in 2012.

This year's nomination, from the Forum for Expatriate Management (FEM) is in the category Employee Benefits Services of the Year. For a list of all nominees please visit the FEM website at 2015 EMMAs Shortlisted Nominees. EMMA winners will be announced on September 10, 2015 at the Americas Global Mobility Summit in San Diego, CA.

The FEM is the world's leading community for all global mobility professionals from many of the world's leading companies. Their membership profile includes senior HR professionals, global operations directors and executive leaders who manage the issues of international staff on a daily basis. The range of sectors covered is extensive, including pharmaceutical, finance, petrochemical, defense and retail; whose issues and requirements for information are universal.
